

Every bit of yellow helps.

Recent infant feeding guidelines developed by Health Canada and other experts now recommend introducing whole eggs starting at 6 months to help prevent an egg allergy. Even if only a little bit makes it in.

For more information,

eggs.ca/baby

